

Summer Tangerine
2 steps up

(Verse 1)

(G)When she first came by my way at the summer's dawn
I thought the (C)light was deceivin' me (G)
Cause her eyes that caught my gaze a while were softer than (B)chamomile and (D)darlin'
Took the (C)breath right out of me(G)

(Lead up)

(C)And ain't she a fruit forbidden(G), by (C)some divine decree(G)
But (C)I'll steal (G)her from (e)Eden(D), and (C)keep her (G)close to me(D)

(Chorus)

(G)She's brightest on the vine
(C)Of ruby gold elixir she is made(G)
My summer tangerine
(D)Be sweet until the (C)winter come again(G)

(Verse 2)

Well it wasn't a (wunna) pretty sight when I tried to speak
Lord I was stammerin' just like a fool
But the way she talk put me right at ease she's soothin' just like a summer breeze
Bringin' on the mornin' dew

(Lead up and chorus)

(Bridge)

(a)Can I get a little ruby sugar, a little (e)golden affection, a little (C)sun-grown and (G)rain-fed delight(D)
A little somethin' strong that'll turn to good times gone
That I can think on through unforgiving nights

(Chorus * 2)

"Be sweet until the winter come again" * 3 on last chorus
